

RIDGEFIELD PREVENTION COUNCIL

Meeting Held May 18, 2010

In attendance: Terry Budlong, AnneMarie Surfaro-Boehme, Colleen Keating,
Margaret Stamatis and Karen Facini

Margaret Stamatis submitted a letter of interest and is attending the Selectman meeting next week to join the council.

The HVCASA grant money has mostly been spent. There is $7,661.10 in the RPC checking account as of 4/30/10.

Y2Y stickers are on bags at five liquor stores in Ridgefield.

RPC website – It was suggested to add the video discussion from Now We're Talking, "Parents, Children and the Law," which included Rudy Marconi, Deborah Low, Jeff Jaslow, Leslie Brown and Officer Luis. Links for contacting these people should be examined. Also a link to TIPP information would be helpful. RHS intern Jeff Borger will help with the website.

RPC is still considering the keynote speaker for Family University. The book, No Kidding Me Too, was discussed with the possibility of altering the format for the evening to include the documentary and a panel.

Next year events:

- Book Club – will continue looking for a suitable book

RPC received $200 from the PYC. Colleen will write a thank you note.

HVCASA yard signs – look for places to post them before the prom and graduation. RHS and Pamby's were suggested.

I am Dirt – May 25th. Terry Budlong and Colleen Keating will attend.

Kathrine Grissom has resigned as substance abuse advisor for RPC. Perhaps Shelley Fisher will fill in.

Purchase drunk goggles for outreach events.

The meeting adjourned at 8:50 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,

Colleen Keating
