

One Permit required to use both the Ridgefield Transfer Station and Ridgefield Recycling Centre

Permit Cost:      Residents - $20      Non-Residents - $40 .

Bought annually from Town Hall - Tax Collector's office (M-F 8.30 am - 4.30 pm)

Ridgefield Transfer Station is for Trash (Solid Waste) and some Recycling - 55 South Street, Mon - Sat 7.30 am to 3 pm

Solid Waste:	(building materials, old carpeting, broken furniture, soiled mattresses etc) Cost: $88.21 / ton (res) or $93.75 (non-res)
--------------	---

Garbage:	(household, restaurant waste etc): $88.21 / ton for large quantities, or $5 for 1-5 bags & $10 for 6-10 bags for residents, or $10 for 1-10 bags for non-residents or $93.75 / ton for non-residents
----------	---

Large Recyclables:	large household appliances, propane tank (max 40lbs), scrap metal, tires, car batteries, etc Cost: $0.15/ pound
--------------------	--

Cooking Oil:	recycle cooking oil at $0.15 / pound
--------------	---------------------------------------

Brush:	(max. 5" diameter) and leaves. Cost: $100 / ton. $5 minimum charge.
--------	---

Ridgefield Recycling Center is for Mixed and Single Stream Recycling - 59 South Street, Tues - Sun 7.30 am to 3 pm. Cost: $85.35 / ton

Corrugated Cardboard goes in COMPACTOR #1	Mixed recycling goes in COMPACTOR #2
---	--------------------------------------

Glass goes in glass collection bin	Shredded paper goes in blue collection bin
------------------------------------	--

Plastic bags place in plastics collection bin	Mattresses go into green container if they are clean and dry
---	--

Textiles go in textile collection bin	E-Waste goes into light blue container, nowhere else. Ask for help.
---------------------------------------	---

Food Scraps:	$3 per drop off, for composting -free compost in Spring after 4 months participation in composting program, restrictions apply, see CT DEEP for more info.
--------------	---

Ridgefield is a member of HRRA ( P 203.775.4539 | F 203.617.2747, <https://hrra.org>)

Household Hazardous Waste : substances that are highly acidic, toxic, explosive, corrosive or flammable. For information on regional events to recycle Hazardous Household Waste: <https://hrra.org/household-hazardous-waste/>

Paint : Ridgefield participates in PaintCare product stewardship program. 5 Gal accepted at no charge, no permit required, restrictions apply. For more info and for drop-off locations of larger quantities see www.paintcare.org or call 855 724-6809.

Food Scraps : Ridgefield also adhere to CT DEEP food scrap recycling mandate (<https://www.ct.gov/deep>).

Plastic Film : Ridgefield participates in WRAP Recycling Action Program (<https://www.plasticfilmrecycling.org>).