

Commission on Aging
June 17, 2019 Meeting Minutes
Town Hall Small Conference Room

Present: Tony Phillips, Karen Gaudian, Marion Freer, George Noyes, Debra Franceschini-Gatje, Mary Ann O'Grady, Christine Robertson, Sheila Silverman

Absent: Mary Morrisoe, Kathy Brennan

The meeting began at 2:30.

Announcement made by MaryAnn O'Grady that she had resigned. The minutes of the May meeting were approved by George Noyes and seconded by Marion Freer - all errors were corrected. The minutes of the April meeting were approved by George Noyes and seconded by Debra Franceschini-Gatje.

Chair Christine Robertson asked if anyone would accept the secretary position and no one responded.

There was a discussion of the topics for study that was presented by Debra Fraseschini-Gatje at the previous meeting. MaryAnn O'Grady reported on affordable housing. She discussed Ballard Green, Conover and the housing authority.

Christine Robertson read the Charter requirements for commissioners and the process to be followed in considering new members. Andrea Levy presented her interests and background. She will now go before the Board of Selectmen.

Detective Victoria Ryan spoke on fraud alert: fakes and scammers. She told of the various ways fraud occurs: the internet, by phone, and often caused by human carelessness. For more detailed information everyone is urged to contact the Detective at the town of Ridgefield Police Dept.

Meeting adjourned at 4:20.

Respectfully submitted

Sheila Silverman, Commissioner
Commission on Aging
