

Commission on Aging March 15th, 2021 Meeting Notes at 7:15pm

Meeting called to order by Laura G. at 7:04

Attendees: Laura Giovannoli, Sheila Silverman, Mary Morrisroe, Deb Franceschini, George Noyes, Maureen Culhane, Karen Guadian, Tony Phillips, Andrea Beebe, Stephanie Rowe, Cathleen Savery

Meeting was held via conference call and time change due to the COVID-19 Virus as was recorded by Tony Phillips via Zoom.

February meeting minutes approved. Sheila 1st, George 2nd. All in favor.

-Abby Sutcliffe from The Interact Group at RHS joined us to tell us about the club and how it mirrored a younger version of the Rotary Club. They done numerous community projects and fundraising for the community. She also talked about a senior talent show that Catherine Pickett created for Zoom watching.

-Debra F. talked about how we could created a master list of all seniors in Ridgefield for RPD ago have on file should emergency notification need to occur. Everyone has their own list/binder and most other groups aren't willing to share their lists. CT ALert is very restrictive about what define as an emergency.

-The Loundsbury House will kick off its first Senior Luncheon drive through on April 26th from 11:30-1:30pm (times may vary)

-There is free Tax Aide being offered at Town Hall for moderate and low income residents. Information is available on the town hall website under TAX AIDE.

-George made a motion to adjourn, Stephanie 2nd.

Meeting over at 7:50pm.

Respectfully Submitted,
Debra Franceschini
