10:00 AM - 12:00 PM

258 Main St, Ridgefield, CT

Register—<https://thealdrich.org/events/summer-pollinators-quest>

Admission: $15 per family; $10 members

Quest your way through The Aldrich's Sculpture Garden to explore the world of pollination through art-making and a live action board game, with you and your family as the moving pieces! Together with Kristin Quell-Garguilo from Pollinator-Pathways and our Aldrich Educators, design a pollinator to navigate the game with, then move through the garden along a guided route with stations to learn about the trials and challenges our pollinators face daily. End the game with a creative art-making activity inspired by the garden, using natural flora you will collect along the way. Perfect to enjoy the start of summer with your children and loved ones!

What is a Pollinator Pathway?

Public and private pesticide-free corridors of native plants that provide nutrition and habitat for pollinating insects and birds. Even the smallest green spaces, like flower boxes and curb strips, can be part of a pathway.
