As the vaccination clinic held by the Town of Ridgefield in partnership with RVNAhealth continues at Yanity Gym next week on Wed. (2/24) 9 a.m-1 p.m. and Thurs. (2/25) 9 a.m.-4 p.m., we ask the following:

- If this is your second dose, please bring your first dose card along with your insurance card and your ID.
- If this is your first dose, please bring your ID showing you are 65 or older or a medical ID indicating that you are included in this Phase as a Medical First Responder or Health Care Personnel
- Please make sure you have a confirmed appointment. The clinic does not take walk-ins.
- First dose recipients must make sure they are not signing for a second dose only clinic.

To see available appointments through the Vaccine Administrative Management VAMS:

- VAMS is the Vaccine Administration Management System, and can be used to schedule appointments at multiple clinics across the State, including: Nuvance Health. You can also go to Nuvance Health directly as follows: nuvancehealth.org/coronavirus/vaccine
- Go to ridgefieldct.org, on the red Covid banner and sign up with the orange Vaccination button. A short tutorial is also available by clicking on the pink button. (Please note, some segments including the health segment have now been streamlined.)
- Click here for more detailed instructions on how to create a VAMS account and schedule your appointment

Here are some additional places to schedule that as of today showed upcoming appointments:

- Stamford Health is operating a clinic 7-days-per-week at the Stamford Hospital. You can use ZocDoc to schedule
