APPENDIX "A" - MINUTES

1. Minutes to be taken at hearings.

Minutes at hearings should be particularly brief for they are supported by recordings.
The minutes should consist then of the following:
a. Title of Hearing Matter (same as final Agenda)
b. Introduction by Chair or brief notation of date or dates and name of newspaper in which legal notice(s) appeared.
c. If the hearing is by applicant, the minutes should contain the names of parties appearing on behalf of applicant such as professional engineer, surveyor, architect, etc.

If the hearing is self-initiated, the minutes should reflect the name of the Commission spokesman.

d. Under paragraphs reading:

“The Chair invited questions of fact by Commission Members”
“The Chair invited questions of fact by the Public”
“The Chair invited presentations against the proposal”
“The Chair invited presentations in favor of the proposal”

Persons speaking to the particular point should be noted; if no one speaks to any one or more of the points, the minutes should reflect it.

e. The final notation on the minutes should read:

“Hearing no further comments, the Chair adjourned the hearing at XX P. M.”.

2. Minutes to be taken during deliberations.

These minutes must clearly reflect reasons for action and conditions of approval or modifications.

The minutes should reflect the following:

a. Title of Item under discussion (from Agenda)

b. Summary of Application (by Chair, Recording Secretary of Commission, or staff member)

c. Motion - Optional
At this point, the Chair invites a motion from the floor regarding the subject under deliberation.

It is suggested that the motion be fully stated for the recording secretary.

d. Summary of Deliberation

This is the most critical aspect of the deliberation process and it is the process contents the courts review to reach a judgment in case of contest. The Chair invites deliberation. As each member speaks, a notation is taken of the salient point expressed by the speaker. At the end of the deliberation process, the Recording Secretary submits a summary of the salient points. Commission members consent on the summary of salient points and the Recording Secretary records the summary together with any revision made during summary review. Final points for acceptance or denial are acted upon by the Commission. When deemed proper, the Chair ends deliberation.

e. Motion - Optional
At this point, the Chair invites a motion from the floor regarding the subject under deliberation.

It is suggested that the motion be fully stated for the recording secretary.

f. Votes
The minutes should clearly reflect the names voting “ayes” and “nays”.

3. Minutes to be taken during self-initiated planning or zoning matters

These minutes reflect actions on items initiated by the Commission. These items are placed on the final Agenda to invite deliberation or instructions to the staff, thus the minutes should reflect the following:

a. Title of Item under Discussion (from Agenda)

b. Summary of Item (by Chair or staff member)

c. Motion - Optional

  Similar to procedure for item 2. c.

d. Summary of Deliberation

  This should be essentially the same as for deliberation on applications.

  It must be remembered, however, that the staff is looking for specific items to effect revisions, corrections or deletions. The summary should be clear and concise.

e. Motion - Optional

  Similar to procedure for item 2.c.

f. Votes

  If a vote is forthcoming, the minutes should reflect the names voting “ayes” and “nays”.
