

Ridgefield Directory of Senior Services

Special thanks to local artist, Paul Siegel, for the use of his beautiful artwork on our cover. Prints are available at Deborah Ann's Sweet Shoppe.

Last Updated 5/15/23

Dear Ridgefield Senior Citizens,

We have prepared this directory as an information resource for you.

There is no doubt about it, the Town of Ridgefield and several local non profit organizations provide a rich array of offerings tailored to make these the best years of your life!

Enjoy this directory, and don't be a stranger. Engage with others and make social connections a priority. You will find welcoming faces throughout our warm and inclusive community. If you need support, reach out to the resources listed. You will find many a helping hand standing by to assist you confidentially and respectfully.

This directory will be updated regularly. The latest version will be date-stamped and available on the Town website. If you see an error or omission, let us know. We will update it promptly.

With great respect and friendship,

The Ridgefield Commission on Aging 203-431-2700
